BIG MEETING MONDAY NIGHT TO FORM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Definite Proposal for Organization of Commercial Association Will be Presented at Meeting at Elk Club Monday Night to Which Every Appleton Man is Invited—Milwaukee Man to be Speaker

Definite proposals for the organization of a Chamber of Commerce or an association similar in character, will be submitted at a meeting of Appleton citizens interested in the city's welfare, at Elk hall Monday evening, March 29. Philip A. Grau, secretary of the Milwaukee Association of Commerce, and a nationally known leader in his work, will be the principal speaker. Addresses will also be delivered by several other prominent Chamber of Commerce workers and by representative Appleton men.

Invitations to this meeting and the dinner which precedes it were mailed today to approximately 500 men. The committee on arrangements, however, believes that in the compilation of its list the names of many men whose presence is desired at the gathering have been unintentionally omitted. Therefore a blanket invitation is extended to every person in Appleton, who has the growth of his city at heart, to attend the dinner and the meeting. The dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock and covers will be $1 each. One of the best known caterers in Appleton has been engaged to take charge of the dinner arrangements.

Make Reservations
Return postal cards are included with the letters of invitation, and should be returned to R. S. Powell, president of the First National bank, not later than Saturday morning. Any persons whose names may have been overlooked when the letters were mailed are requested by the committee to communicate with Mr. Powell either personally, by letter or by telephone before Saturday morning and make their reservations. The committee desires to make the conference the largest gathering of representative men ever assembled in Appleton for the purpose of booming the city. Every citizen is invited.

Given Much Thought
Organization of a chamber of commerce or a commercial organization at this time is not the result of a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm. The need of an organization, which will combine the energies of Appleton men for Appleton's good has been apparent for a long time and has been given considerable thought. About two weeks ago a number of men, prominent in their various walks of life, met as individuals and discussed plans of consolidating and concentrating the energies which have always been put forth, sometimes in a more or less haphazard manner, to promote the city's growth. These men agreed that an organization with a competent head was necessary to produce the results they strived for and slowly the germs of a commercial organization developed. Other meetings were held in which these men expressed their opinions freely and formulated a plan which they believed would result in the formation of an efficient association with the sole object of making Appleton a bigger and better city.

This plan, prepared by these men acting strictly as individuals, without any official capacity, will be presented at the massmeeting of all Appleton men at Elk hall Monday evening. A committee consisting of J. P. Frank, attorney, chairman, J. D. Steele, president of the Pettibone-Peabody company; R. S. Powell, president of the First National Bank, and J. K. Kline, president of the Post-Crescent, was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for this meeting and their names are signed to the letters of invitation.

Investigated Other Plans
Before the plan to be submitted Monday evening was completed, the men instrumental in framing it made investigations in many cities which have commercial organizations and obtained useful information. The best features of all the various clubs, it is said, are incorporated in the plan proposed for Appleton, giving rise to the belief that if the proposal is accepted, Appleton will have one of the most highly organized and efficient organizations of its kind in the country.

The plan provides for the employment of a secretary to be paid a respectable salary and who will devote his entire time to the work. It involves the establishment of offices downtown which will be easily accessible. Memberships are provided for and tentative arrangements are made for a campaign to raise not less than $12,500 annually to finance the work. Details will be explained by members of the committee Monday evening and the need and operation of commercial organizations will be presented by Mr. Grau and other out-of-the-city men who are familiar with commercial organization work and its benefits.

Make Plans Early
It is important that every Appleton man at all interested in the city's betterment be at the meeting so that he will have a clear understanding of what is proposed. Complete freedom of expression will be invited and every person will be urged to express himself freely on his opinions regarding Appleton's needs and the plan of organization.

Because of the exceedingly large number of men expected at the dinner at 6:30 o'clock it will be difficult to make arrangements unless advance reservations are made by Saturday

KANSAS STUDENT' SOVIET DUCKS PROFS IN LAKE

By United Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo.—Soviet, a noun, a collection of students who duck faculty members in icy lakes.

That was the interpretation made by faculty members of Hays normal when they drippingly emerged from a lake here, shaking with a March chill. They had been tossed in by students. They wired state officials that "red" students had organized a soviet and were punishing those not obeying the soviet's manifestos.

The students said the ducking was only a college prank—and quite successful. Ducking is more ancient than sovieting, they said.

Nevertheless, an investigation will be made by state officials on the complaint of instructor P. Casper Harvey, in charge of the school during the absence of the president.

PLYMOUTH CHEESE BOARD SETS PRICE FOR WORLD

By United Press Leased Wire
Plymouth, Wis.—That the Plymouth Cheese board fixes the price of cream cheese for the nation was charged here by Henry Krumrey, president of the Wisconsin cheese producers' association, at the state inquiry into the cheese industry. He stated that only three percent of the cheese produced is sold on the Plymouth board. Krumrey advised abolishment of the board.

Herman Wheeler, representing a cheese dealer firm, admitted that attempts had been made to manipulate prices by rejection of high bids and acceptance of low ones in order to fix prices for the coming week.

WANTS SON TO FORGIVE FATHER WHO SHOT HIM

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—Mother-love refused today to condemn the father who Tuesday night shot and seriously wounded Frank Piane, 17 years old, to save his son.

Mrs. Piane with her eight months old baby visited the hospital where her son lay wounded and asked him to forgive his father. "If Frank will reform there is nothing too good for him that is within our power to give him," she said. "His father wanted to teach him a lesson."

Frank, steadily recovering from the three bullet wounds inflicted when his father found him loafing with a gang of "toughs", promised to "go straight if he received."

The father was still being held by police today pending the outcome of his son's wound. He will be charged with assault with intent to kill, police said.

Miss Mildred Hutchinson is at Sugar Bush today to attend the wedding of a friend.

MILWAUKEE WOMAN SAID TO BE A BOOTLEGGER

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—Mrs. Magdalene Tamas was to be arranged today on charges of violating the federal prohibition act. Federal agents say they seized a still of fifteen gallons capacity and fifteen gallons of prune and raisin mash at her home. The woman is married and has several children.

UNION MEN REFUSE TO WORK ON PORTABLE HOMES

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—The debut of the portable house as a solution of the high cost of renting received a jolt here today. Chicago union carpenters refused to complete the setting up process of the first of these houses. They were ordered to stop work by William Brims, union carpenters' official.

"The portable house is a project against the interests of our organization," Brims said. "The real union-made house is made by union carpenters here, not out of town."

"The house is union made, every part of it," R. S. Bassett, lumberman back of the project, stated today. "The rub is that the material was not produced by a Chicago concern."

HEAVILY LADEN FERRY SINKS AT MANITOWOC

By United Press Leased Wire
Manitowoc, Wis.—Losing its course in a heavy fog, the Ann Arbor car ferry, Number 4, laden with 25 freight cars, sunk in the harbor here today. Six passengers and the crew of 25 were rescued by the Goodrich tug Arctic.

Attempting to reach its docks in the harbor, the vessel ran onto some rocks near the north shore of the city, tearing a huge hole in its side. After battling to release itself, the ship finally backed off the rocks and went to the bottom near the Goodrich docks.

The ferry left Frankfort, Mich., at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday piloted by Capt. Charles Frederickson. It carried a large cargo of coal for the Soo Line railroad. Dense fog was encountered just as it neared the harbor entrance. Possible loss of life was averted by the successful fight to back off the rocks.

WANTS WILSON TO KEEP OUT OF THE CAMPAIGN

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—President Wilson should announce immediately that he is not a candidate for a third term, Representative Humphreys, Mississippi, declared in the house today.

Humphreys asserted that under no conditions should Wilson consider announcing for re-election, and advocated the passage of a constitutional amendment limiting presidential eligibility to one term.

"I regret that the president has remained silent as to his intentions in the matter of a third term," Humphreys said, "and that he has permitted so many of his friends, including members of his cabinet, to advocate publicly his re-election. By remaining silent he has allowed the country to believe that he is willing to break the ancient precedent."

HOUSE WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT YANKS IN GERMANY

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington—The house today called on President Wilson for a definite statement of the exact status of the 17,000 American troops in Germany.

In two minutes it unanimously passed the resolution of Representative Kahn, California, chairman of the military affairs committee, asking that congress be advised immediately under what conditions and by whose direction the United States forces can be used.

No debate occurred on the resolution. Kahn stating that Secretary Baker had advised him he had no objection to its passage. It passed without a record vote.

DANIELS OPPOSED ENROLLING MEN IN NAVY, PALMER SAYS

OFFICER IN NAVAL DEPARTMENT TELLS PROBERS THAT HE ACTED AGAINST DANIELS' ORDERS

ANOTHER INQUIRY BEGUN

Court of Inquiry Investigates Removal of Admiral Fletcher From Command of American Naval Forces in French Waters

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The Daniels-Sims controversy today was investigated at the capitol and at the navy department simultaneously.

Capt. L. C. Palmer, formerly chief of the bureau of navigation, testified at the senate's probe that Secretary Daniels ordered him to stop enrolling naval reserves in January, 1917, just before the war and did the same thing "four or five times after" up to late in 1917, on the ground that ships were not ready. Palmer said he went on enrolling recruits because he knew they needed six months training.

While Palmer was testifying at the capitol, the court of inquiry at the navy department began investigating the charges of Rear Admiral W. B. Fletcher that Admiral Sims without cause removed him from command at Brest.

This court of inquiry is considered to be Daniels' counter attack to Sims' charges. Sims was present as the investigation began with Judge Advocate K. M. Bennett questioning Fletcher. The latter made a statement of his previous experience in the navy to show that he was qualified to command American forces in French waters.

Instructions were given by Sims early in the war that the American naval forces in French waters were to be regarded "as part of the French forces in all matters," Fletcher said.

Palmer said the navy went into the war short 67,000 enlisted men, 2,500 officers and that as soon as the "destroyer" and submarine checker program was planned 20,000 more were needed.

Daniels, he said, opposed efforts to shorten the course at the Annapolis naval academy to three years. In the early part of the war, chaotic conditions prevailed in recruiting work, according to Palmer. Recruiting offices were under-manned and reports of enlistments were months behind.

Palmer said he sent enlisted men abroad to Sims "as fast as we could considering the start we had." Daniels, he said, had objected to allowing Sims to enroll enlisted men abroad, but Palmer sent enrollment blanks to Sims without authority and necessary men were enlisted despite the opposition of Daniels.

TWO CHINESE COOLIES ARE SLAIN BY YANKEE MARINES

(By Henry W. Kinney.)
By United Press Leased Wire
Tokio, (delayed)—American marines who landed at Kiukiang at the request of the British consul killed two Chinese coolies, according to reports here. They later withdrew at the request of the local authorities.

The British consul asked the marines to land to quell a fight between Chinese policemen and coolies, according to dispatches received here. The feeling against Americans and Europeans as a result of the incident was said to be intense.

Kiukiang is about 130 miles southeast of Hankow. It is a treaty port and has a foreign settlement.

COURT RULING STRIKES AT BISBEE DEFENSE

(By M. D. Tracy.)
By United Press Leased Wire
Tombstone, Ariz.—The defense today opened its case in the Bisbee deportation trial.

The court specified that actual conditions preceding the deportations must be proved before any conspiracy evidence is admitted. The ruling holds that the defense may introduce evidence to prove an I. W. W. conspiracy only as it specifically refers to Bisbee.

The defense had proposed to prove that 200,000 men were involved in a nation-wide "anti-Christian, anti-patriotic, anti-government" conspiracy, and that the Bisbee strike was a part of this.

OFFICIOUS "SLEUTH" COSTS A CHICAGO HOTEL $9,000

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Cassius C. Smiley, Indianapolis, were ousted from a hotel here by a house detective. The sleuth, who was loitering in the hall, heard Mr. Smiley call his wife "Sweetheart" and decided that wasn't the usual endearment for married persons.

The detective entered the room and despite protests of the Smileys, ordered them to leave. They did.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Smiley are $9,000 richer, the amount awarded them for damages by a jury here. Smiley had sued the hotel company for $25,000.

ALLIES WILL SEND TROOPS INTO RUHR IF GERMANS FAIL

FUTURE OF GERMANY DEPENDS UPON IMMEDIATE RESTORATION OF ORDER IN INDUSTRIAL REGION

NEW CABINET IS FORMED

London Hears That New Cabinet is in Power—Westphalian City is Captured by Red Forces—Situation is Critical

By United Press Leased Wire
Paris.—Allied military intervention in the Ruhr industrial district of Germany will follow if troops of the German government are unable to restore order there, it was learned today.

If the Ebert emissaries are unable to negotiate peace in the present parlays, it was said, the allies will grant full permission to send as many troops into the district as President Ebert wishes. If the maximum armed forces available to the central government cannot restore order then the allied forces will take charge of the situation.

Under the terms of the peace treaty the German government is not allowed to have armed forces in the Westphalian industrial district. The situation in the Ruhr district was discussed at a meeting of the council of ambassadors yesterday. Two German officers, sent from Berlin, were understood to have presented the case of the Ebert government, pointing out that Germany's hands are tied unless the allies agree to allow German military forces in the troubled areas.

Investigate Conditions

Several French military and economic experts have gone to the Rhine to follow developments in the communist uprising. According to these men, Germany is faced with a critical situation unless she succeeds in quelling the radicals immediately. The district now under control of the communists contains Germany's only unpiled coal supply—and upon the output of these Ruhr mines the nation's industrial life depends.

Henry Bidou, French economic expert, in a telegram today said the Ebert government was concentrating reichswehr in the Wuerttemberg district on the one side and from south Germany on the other side, apparently to start a double offensive against the workmen should the peaceful negotiations fail.

Insurgents Will Arrive

Apparently, he said, it is the government's intention to follow the same tactics used in downing the Spartacist uprising in Munich in 1919, by the converging attack from two sides.

However, Bidou said, the insurgents seem well armed and drilled and capably led. Their cooperation will enable them to move their forces from front to front faster than their attackers. In addition they have threatened to flood the mines if the government launches an attack in force.

For these reasons, Bidou believed, there is every probability the government will exhaust every resource for peaceful settlement before resorting to extensive military operations.

London—The new German cabinet was completed last midnight, according to Berlin dispatch to the Amsterdam Telegraph.

The dispatch named the new cabinet as follows:

Chancellor, Gustav Bauer; justice, Eugen Schiffer; foreign affairs, Herman Mueller; interior, Erich Koch; defense, Dr. Gessler; finance, Otto Cuno; transport, Dr. Bell; treasury, Dr. Bolls; labor, Herr Schleiher; economics, Robert Schmidt; reconstruction, Dr. Schuler; without portfolio, Dr. Eduard David.

Cuno, Bell and Bolls are centrists. The others are socialist democrats. The independent socialists, the dispatch said, are not represented.

Reach Agreement

Mayence, Ger.—Representatives of the government of President Ebert and the West German insurgents have reached a final agreement, according to advices here today.

Terms of the agreement were reported as follows:

The government agrees to formation of a working men's army charged with maintaining order throughout the west German industrial district.

Syndicalists shall be allowed to participate in the reorganization of the central government.

All participants in the recent coup d'etat in Berlin shall be disarmed.

The government shall inaugurate social and administrative reforms demanded by the workers, including socialization of mines, especially in the coal and potash producing districts.

All revolutionary organizations shall be disbanded.

The government agrees to furnish an adequate food supply in the industrial areas.

175 Are Killed

Paris.—More than 175 persons were killed in fighting between communist workmen's forces and German government troops in the Thuringia district near Gotha, a dispatch here today said.

One red army was said to have surrendered unconditionally. The communist chiefs escaped.

Reds Capture City

Essen, Westphalia.—Leaders of the German red forces here today announced the capture of Wessel, 20,000.

$100,000,000 Added To Coal Bill Of U. S.

Increase of 27 Per Cent in Wages Paid Miners Will Raise Price of Coal from 25 to 35 Cents a Ton, Operators Aver

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Increased prices of coal will cost the American public more than a hundred million dollars annually when government control of fuel prices ceases April 1, coal operators here predicted today.

The jump in prices at that time, according to G. W. Reed of Chicago, will be caused by increased wages now being paid miners and to make up further increases to be granted them.

"Coal prices are going higher," said Reed. "There isn't any doubt about it. The recent 14 per cent increase in miners' wages will be put on the price of coal as soon as the government releases its supervision. Just how high prices will go depends on the extent to which further increases will be granted. All increases in wages will be put on the price of coal."

Half Million Miners
There are more than half a million coal miners in the United States. Figuring that they receive an average of $5 a day for 200 working days a year, the total amount in wages paid to them approximately is $400,000,000. Based on the recommendation of President Wilson's coal commission that the miners should be given a 27 per cent increase, this would mean that more than $100,000,000 additional wages would have to be paid out.

In 1919 coal production, according to authorities here, totaled 415,000,000 tons. Figured at this rate, it would mean that the consumer will have to pay at least 25 cents a ton more for coal than he is paying now. . . .thouin?ooio nampnyth4oDu . . . 35 Cent Increase Columbus, O.—An increase of 35 cents a ton for soft coal is likely to begin April 1, according to H. F. High, secretary of the Ohio-Michigan-Indiana coal association.

He pointed out the increase will be necessary to absorb the 27 per cent increase in wages to miners, recommended in the report of President Wilson's coal commission.

KIDNAPERS DEMAND $25,000 FOR BOY

Twelve Year Old Son Of A Wealthy Kentuckian Held By "Enemy" Of His Father

By United Press Leased Wire
Lexington, Ky.—Thousands of police officers in all parts of Kentucky and Ohio were engaged in a hunt today for Paul Little, 12 year old son of E. R. Little, wealthy livestock raiser and turf man, kidnapped late yesterday.

Threat to kill the boy unless Little leaves $25,000 at a designated place by a certain time was contained in a note delivered at the Little home several hours after the boy disappeared.

The note said the writer was an enemy of the boy's father and "I intend to pull your heart out of your breast or your money out of your pocket."

Three school companions of the little child said they were walking home with him yesterday afternoon when approached by a man who asked Paul to meet him at the postoffice at 4:30 p. m. to deliver a package for him.

At 4 p. m., they said, the stranger again interrupted their play to ask Paul to deliver the package and Paul and the man walked toward the postoffice. That was the last seen of the child.

Little said he is without enemies so far as he knows and the only description or clue officials have is the story told by the boy's three companions.

Little announced today he would pay the $25,000 demanded whenever the kidnapers specified the place and time of payment.

MAN FACES TRIAL FOR MURDER LAST AUGUST

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—It was expected that the state's testimony would be completed today in the case of Walter Struczewski, charged with the murder of Frank Miskolek last August. The latter died a week after he was found severely beaten up in an alley. Neighbors said a man answering Struczewski's description was seen running away from the place. It was also testified that the two had quarrelled in a nearby saloon.

northwest of Essen, which was besieged by the red army for several days.

The reds refused the government's offer of an armistice.

Fighting continued all day yesterday, the red communists said. Red armies captured Friedrichsfeld. Other forces have reached the river Lippe, about 20 miles north of Essen.

Communists were in complete control of the red armies, the communists concluded.

Earlier dispatches said that Wesel was held by 6,000 reichswehr troops, supporting the government of President Ebert. The attacking reds were said to number more than 20,000.

BAD BANKERS ENDORSE . . . OF C. IN THEIR CITIES

LETTERS TO R. S. POWELL EXPRESS APPRECIATION OF WORK PERFORMED BY ASSOCIATIONS

IS CITY'S BIGGEST NEED

No Live City Should be Without Commercial Organization, Bank Officials Assert in Letters to Appleton Banker

Wisconsin bankers, without exception, are enthusiastic supporters of commercial organizations such as is proposed for Appleton, according to letters received by R. S. Powell, president of the First National bank of Appleton, from bank officials in many Badger cities. The letters were in reply to requests by Mr. Powell for information concerning commercial organizations in their cities.

When the Appleton men who are to submit the proposal for a commercial organization at Elk hall Monday evening met to discuss the city's needs and formulate some plan for action, it was decided to investigate plans in other cities. Mr. Powell wrote to bankers in practically every city with a working Chamber of Commerce or similar organization and asked for information concerning the work of the association, plans of operation, salaries paid secretaries and dues paid by members.

Replies indicate that in every city the commercial organizations are among the city's most important activities and that keen interest is taken in the work. Bankers agree that every city should have its energies organized and that this energy should be directed by a capable leader.

Following are a few of the letters received by Mr. Powell:

What Racine Is Doing

Racine, Wis.
"Dear Mr. Powell:—Your letter of the 20th was received asking for information regarding our Chamber of Commerce or Commercial Club.

"In reply will say that we have a Commercial Club here with a large membership—I think, something over 500—and the annual dues are $15. Besides the dues received from the members, we have a large sustaining membership through some of our banks and manufacturers.

"The income of our Club last year from memberships, sustaining memberships, profits on luncheons, hall rent and miscellaneous items, was $14,332. There was paid out for wages, rent and other items $14,132, leaving a small balance of $200.

"We pay our Secretary $4,000 per year. We believe the Club is a great benefit to our city. The public activities have centered in that club, committees meeting there, the club rooms being open at all times during the day and evening.

MEAT SAVING WEEK IS NOT MAKING IMPRESSION

The "Save Money on Meat Week" which opened Monday, March 22, and will close Saturday, March 27, is not being observed to any great extent in Appleton. Consumers were urged by Charles H. Tenney, federal fair price commissioner of Madison, to purchase during that time the cheaper cuts of meat to reduce the high cost of living, but this is not being done. The most expensive cuts, meat market proprietors claim, are purchased by people of moderate circumstances who evidently are satisfied with high prices.

No Saving in Chicago

Chicago — "Cheap meat week" means nothing in the lives of Chicago meat consumers.

The federal campaign inaugurated here this week to induce buying of cheaper cuts of meat to reduce the high cost of living, but this is not being done. The most expensive cuts, meat market proprietors claim, are purchased by people of moderate circumstances who evidently are satisfied with high prices.

SHEBOYGAN JAIL DELIVERY FOILED

DEPUTY SHERIFF ARRIVES IN TIME TO PREVENT THREE MEN FROM MAKING THEIR ESCAPE

Sheboygan, Wis.—A daring attempt of three prisoners at the county jail here to escape was prevented by the timely arrival of Deputy Sheriff F. H. Hinze.

Although the door at the top of the stairs leading into the cell corridor had been forcibly wrenched and badly bent and one of the locks on the cell door had been filed off or ground loose to such an extent that all that was necessary to open it was to give it a slight pull, the three prisoners failed to carry out their plot.

The prisoners are awaiting the April term of the Circuit court. One of them is Calvin Pooler, implicated in the daylight holdup of young Edward Canisius, and it is thought possible by the sheriff that his accomplice was in the city in an attempt to effect his partner's release. J. McDonald, arrested for forgery, was also involved.

Dummy in Cell
When Hinze went upstairs to the cell rooms he discovered that the main door had been tampered with. One of the prisoners was out of his cell and in the main corridor of the second floor.

In one of the cots appeared to be the form of another man, which upon investigation proved to be a dummy fixed up with shoes and pillows. When questioned, the prisoners denied all knowledge of the circumstances and maintained that they had not made an attempt to escape.

Method a Mystery
Further investigation revealed that the heavy duck used under the mattresses had been cut into long strips, ostensibly to provide means of getting from the second floor to the ground. It is a mystery how the men inside the jail procured instruments with which to cut the ducking and file off the locks.

Sheriff Brockman has appealed to the county for greater protection.

The locks on every door in the jail are of the old pattern and one key unlocks every door of the jail from the entrance to the cells. The sheriff wants an electric system with enunciation to give warning in case of attempted jail delivery.

POWER MEAT SLICER IN BONINI MARKET

One of the most important of the many improvements made in the equipment of meat markets is the new power meat slicer which has just been installed in the Bonini cash market. This machine, operated by electricity, does the work of three men; cuts any kind of meat with bone and does it more quickly and economically than can possibly be done by hand. It is also much more sanitary in operation.

There have been many changes in meat market equipment in the last ten years, making it necessary for the modern market owner to make many changes to keep abreast of the times. The new ideas and the new equipment has increased the efficiency of meat markets many fold and has made them much more sanitary.

According to market men, the meat slicer is the greatest improvement in market equipment since the invention of the ice machine.

Rohan, principal of the second district, made the presentation speeches, and Ward Wheeler responded on behalf of the champions. An address of acknowledgment for the sportsmanship banner was made by John Fumal, captain of the Columbus team. The judges were Professors White, Pelton and Cameron of the high school.

AUTO TIRE ENDANGERED BY NAILS ON PAVEMENT

GOVERNOR PHILIPP IS 59 YEARS OLD TODAY

State's Chief Executive Advises
Young People to Lead Life
Which Will Not Compel
Them to Quarrel
With Themselves

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Madison—Governor E. L. Philipp today commemorated his 59 birthday. In health and good spirits he remarked that he "never felt better in his life."

From the cabin to the executive's chamber can be applied to the career of Wisconsin's war governor.

Emanuel L. Philipp was born on a small farm in Sauk county March 25, 1861. He attended the rural school and the Sauk City high school, taught school at 17; studied telegraphy, was telegraph operator, train dispatcher, contracting freight agent for the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, general agent for the Gould lines, manager of a lumber company, this in Mississippi, where he founded the town of Philipp, was elected president of the Union Refrigerator Transit Company, of St. Louis, afterwards purchased it and organized the Union Refrigerator Transit Company of Wisconsin of which he has been president an principal stockholder ever since.

When nominated and elected governor in 1914 he had never before been a candidate for any elective office. He was chosen on a platform for a business administration and re-elected in 1916 and 1918.

A statement was asked of Governor Philipp to which he replied: "Today is my fifty-ninth birthday. I am asked by the press to make a few comments on life, that suggest themselves from my experience."

"My advice, to all who wish it, is to lead the life that will not compel you to quarrel with yourself. Always bear in mind that you are the hardest person to satisfy in all your acquaintance. Satisfy your ambitions if you can do so by honorable means. Whatever your luck may be, even if misfortune comes to you, if you will look about you will usually find someone whose luck has been worse than yours. The tide of life often turns. Fortune sometimes comes when you least expect it. Therefore, live in hope always and be happy."

A "GET-TOGETHER" OCCASION

The general feeling for a long time past that Appleton should organize a commercial association, and recent revival of the subject by the Post-Crescent, have resulted in a new movement to bring this about. Men interested have met in an informal way as individuals and out of their discussions plans have been formulated to give a public dinner next Monday evening at which the question of perfecting an organization of this character will be thoroughly considered.

In the opinion of the Post-Crescent this is an undertaking of first importance to the city of Appleton. We think everyone will be agreed that no matter how desirable Appleton may be as a place of residence and business and industrial enterprise, it can be improved in all these respects. No city at any time in its history can rest on its laurels. It cannot take in the oars. Cities develop, progress and improve the same as individuals—the same as every form of activity within them. There are many existing problems which relate to our advancements and betterment as a community. When these problems are solved other and new ones will take their place. It is a continuous process of development.

Appleton's future is in its own keeping. It will be the kind of city its people make it this year, next year and thereafter. What we make of this city depends upon what we think of it, upon our faith in it, our aspirations and the energy and service we give toward realizing these aims.

Some of our problems relate to civic improvements, some to municipal service, some to the educational, social, recreational and economic side of our life; others relate to our material progress, to business, industry, transportation, etc., and still others to housing, highways, and a wide range of factors which in the aggregate determine our character and strength as a city. It is self-evident that we can make greater headway toward a solution of these problems by organizing our efforts and our resources. It is apparent that effectiveness lies in united and persistent endeavor. This work and these results can be best accomplished through the kind of an organization it is proposed to form at the dinner and meeting next Monday night. Every person who is interested in the welfare and progress of Appleton is invited to attend. It is a "get-together" occasion in behalf of Appleton and we trust there will be a large and enthusiastic response.

HONESTY IN TURKEY

The world-wide opposition to the decision of the supreme council to allow the Turks to stay in Europe surprised the statesmen of the allied countries. Since then they have been seeking a way out. England is more concerned about the possible effects of throwing the Turk out of Constantinople than other nations, since England has under her sway millions of Mohammedans who, it is said, will be disturbed if the sultan, head of the Mohammedan faith, is ejected from the "Holy City."

Landing of the allied forces at Constantinople indicates at least that the voice of the peoples has been heard. What final solution will be attempted is not yet clear.

A solution has been suggested which is sensible and practical. It is pointed out that Stamboul—the old walled city within Constantinople—contains all the public and religious monuments sacred to the Mohammedan world. The proposal has been made to "Vaticanize" the city of Stamboul and assign it as the official residence of the sultan.

This would leave the rest of the city of Constantinople, both shores of the Bosphorus, the Dardanelles and Gallipoli peninsula to be internationalized under the league of nations. It is a reasonable solution and the greatest solution that should be made to the Turk. The good faith of the statesmen of the allied countries can be judged by whether or not they accept it. Constantinople should not be left to the Turk if the peace of the world is to be safe-guarded.

One of the first diplomatic acts of Secretary of State Colby is the preparation of a note to the allied supreme council which reaffirms the original position of the United States that the Turks shall be expelled from Europe irrespective of the political complications which threaten a different policy. There is only one course for this country to pursue and that is to insist, so far as its power and influence go, that southeastern Europe be cleansed of the malignant effects of Turkish authority and influence. The United States may even demand that Stamboul be denied to the Turks with perfect consistency.

THE PRESIDENTIAL SITUATION

Notwithstanding the apparent progress of the Wood candidacy for president, as well as the strength of Governor Lowden, the fact is that Herbert Hoover remains the most interesting figure in the field. The politicians profess to take little account of the Hoover movement, but this obviously is because they are not in sympathy with it. The former food administrator is not viewed with favor by the bosses of either party. Mr. Bryan looks upon him as an impossible nomination for the Democrats, and Mr. Penrose says he cannot be considered as a Republican possibility. In the meantime Mr. Hoover's party inclination seems to be as much a mystery as ever.

No one can say whether Mr. Hoover aspires to the presidency or not. If he does he unquestionably could have brightened the prospects of realizing this ambition by identifying himself with one of the great parties. For some reason or other, in spite of his aversion to committing himself in a party way, he seems to have a peculiar and strong hold upon the popular imagination. He is the only discussed candidate for whom there is a spontaneous popular demand. The sentiment for General Wood has been largely manufactured, while the popularity machines of the other candidates are industriously engaged in turning out their product.

As the situation stands today Mr. Hoover, were he the candidate of the Republican party, would sweep the country. He would poll a larger vote, we think, than any other man whose name has thus far been mentioned in connection with the presidency. However, there does not appear to be any likelihood of his receiving the Republican nomination even if he were to declare himself a member of that party. The organization does not want him, and unfortunately public opinion does not control the organization. The candidate must first pass examination by the party leaders before he can have any real standing before the convention. That is the rule, and while there are exceptions to all rules this is one that does not often occur in politics.

Mr. Hoover as the nominee of the Democratic party would be a formidable candidate, but not nearly so strong as the Republican nominee. He might have a chance of election, depending upon the weakness of the Republican choice and the changing of the national drift toward the Republican party between now and November, but these are contingencies upon which speculation cannot place much reliance. There is some talk of the possibility of Hoover running as an Independent candidate, but we do not think that is to be taken seriously. Although the differences between the Republican and Democratic parties are so hazy that no one today can identify the policies of either, the truth is the people want a Republican president and they are more concerned about the man to be nominated than they are about the platform to be enunciated.

JURILATE

O, sing this day of gladness glee,
This royal, joyful jubilee!
O, let's rejoice, exult and shout,
O, let the joyful jing sing out!
O, let us shake our sides and roar
And crack our ruffled ribs once more!
O, let us carol, trill and sing
And mad fandangoes let us fling!
O, let us chuckle, cheer and crow;
O, ha, ha, ha! O, ho, ho, ho!
O, let us frolic, fling and play,
O, let us drive dull care away!
Our income-tax is due today!

O, let's kick up our heels in folly,
O, toll-a-roll, rollo, rollo!
O, loose the wasail, drain the bowl
And hold high jinks in every soul!
O, can with laughter to the core
And shake the cap-and-bells once more!
O, zig the jig and rickadone!
O, razz the jazz and troll the tune!
O, ho, ho, ho! O, ha, ha, ha!
Fling up the cap and give hurrah!
O, rag the reel and roundelay,
For March makes merry more than May,
Our income-tax is due today!

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright, 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

All Men Have the Same Ideas About the Marriage of Wife.

"Tell me where is fancy bred in the heart or in the head?" I quoted when Bob and I were alone together.

An ancient query. My love for you belongs as much to my head as my heart. Why this sudden interest in the subject?"

I repeated my conversation with Chrys concerning the instability of love and the law of change and the doctrine of magnetic attraction and repulsion.

"We should worry, sweetheart. You're a perpetual challenge, never two days alike. Always into something new. Why, I'm never going to have an excuse for acquiring an affinity. I'm fated to remain tamely respectable—and violently in love with my one little wife forever."

Bob finished by snatching me close in his arms and kissing me.

I slipped away from him because I didn't want our conversation interrupted by his love-making. Then I put this to him:

"I'm afraid Chrys and Spence will never make a go of it, although they are so desperately in love at present. But she is so credulous—so—so psychic and he is so scientific and blunt and practical. It would be a pity if love were to drop down between the twain and smash to bits. They're the handsomest pair of lovers nature ever linked together."

"As if that gave them the special privilege of being happy. Don't get so pathetic over it," said Bob. "Spence is a grand chap. He will accept—and overlook—the weaknesses of two women he loves."

"He will, will he? Guess again, my dear. Just because he is so grand he will never accept any old ouija 'control' as a third member of his family. I notice that men, great or simple, have the same ideals about the exclusiveness of love—and all that. They have the same ideals concerning the management of wives, too. Their methods are different, that's all."

"Explain, most wise Portia."

"Jordan Spence may be a grand chap, but he intends to rule Chrys just as you rule me, and as all men govern their wives!"

At this Bob went off into one of his unexplainable fits of mirth.

"Go on, fair lady," he managed to murmur, between bursts of laughter.

"Just now Spence thinks he can cure Chrys of her credulity. He is sure his love can work miracles. But it can't. After a while he will find that Chrys has little mental processes of her own which he can't influence. This includes her susceptibility to the supernatural which he so despises. When he finds he can't mold her, he will blame her: He will consider her obstinate or a fool. He will just naturally stop loving her."

"So she says he would rather let him go now and take the risk! Maybe she's right," said Bob, after a little serious thinking. "Spence is uncompromising."

"All men are," I remarked.

"I know a great verse which applies to Spence. I clipped it from an English paper when I was over there. It's by T. W. H. Crossland." Bob pulled his address book from his pocket and turned to a flyleaf. I looked over his shoulder while he read:

If I should ever be in England's thought
After I die,
Say, "There were many things he might have bought
And did not buy.
Unhonored by his fellows he grew old
And trod the path to hell.
But there were many things he might have sold
And did not sell."

"It's splendid, isn't it, Bob? It makes all the material things and the physical things seem so pretty."

"It leaves one face to face with moral values. I think."

"What wouldn't you sell, Bob?"

HOLIDAYS CAUSE BIG LOSSES

New York.—There are not enough figures on a typewriter to indicate what the United States pays for its annual array of holidays.

In both money and time, the high cost of loafing amounts in a year to sums too great to conceive or to rows of figures too long to read.

Statistics sharks, however, have managed to gather data that may come within a few million dollars of the correct mark, and may not miss the total time lost by much more than a couple of centuries.

Here are some of the facts well-informed mathematicians point to as proving their point that America would be richer by a few trillion dollars if it the public took fewer "off days."

During 1920 the almanac list just 9 national holidays, generally observed throughout every state, and none of which falls on a Saturday. In addition, there are half-holidays observed on Saturdays in most states, enough, they say, to amount to 26 whole holidays. In all, then, there are 35 whole holidays on which office workers, store clerks, teachers and toilers in dozens of other lines cease work.

Take for example an office of 100 persons. Thirty-five holidays are granted each employee, making in all 3,500 days for the office force, not counting Sundays. This sum amounts to a little more than 11 years, therefore, for each office of 100 days.

Placing the average weekly salary of the employees at $20, simple arithmetic will show the loss to the one employer for the 11 years is $1,716,000. To this sum must be added wages lost by union workers whose pay is reckoned on a time basis; loss because of no production; loss in manufacturing plants where steam must be kept up and overhead expenses go on regardless of the holiday; and to railroads and transportation companies whose lines are over-crowded by freight and passengers the following day.

The money loss throughout the United States would be somewhere around $8,589,000,000, counting only the items suggested above, while the time loss in the whole country would be about 359,000,000 working days or 559,118 working years.

If the sharks are right, and there has been no one to step forward to challenge their figures the total loss will probably nearly double the figures already presented, because they declare no consideration whatever has been given for the 35 holidays that are faithfully observed in various states celebrating national, religious or local historical incidents.

DAYTON MEN ARE SCOT "DADDIES"
Dayton, O.—Five hundred Dayton men have become rabid fans for the Dayton branch of the Boy Scouts of America through a clever scheme devised by John Halton, Dayton "contmaster."

Halton has organized the "Old Scouts." The members are business men who are glad to pay $10 a year for membership. They thus become "daddies" of the Boy Scouts and the money they pay for dues support the scout organization.

Halton first called a small group of influential men together. He submitted his plan which all accepted with enthusiasm. Each sent out a hundred letters to friends, soliciting further memberships. All in all five hundred have responded and more are expected to join.

Each "Old Scout" has on the wall of his office an emblem which says: "I am an 'Old Scout'—are you?"

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Thursday, March 28, 1895

The street sprinkler made its rounds to the relief of the community. The political pot was boiling with tremendous energy and both sides were confident of victory.

Theodore Berg and Albert Wolf of the Athenae society and Thomas Keefe of the Philomathean society were on joint debates at the annual "blow-out," as it was called, of the Freshman class of the state university.

L. E. Darling of the town of Bovina was knocked down while crossing College avenue by a horse driven by Dr. Rush Winslow and suffered serious internal injuries.

Fred C. Hartung had accepted a position with the Continental Clothing company.

J. C. Murphy died the day previous of pneumonia after a week's illness. He was employed as a millwright at the plant of the Combined Locks Paper company.

The prize essayists chosen at the Ryan high school were Joseph Blanch, Max Hammel, Sarah Weiss, Ida Wolf and Ocha Potter.

Peter Kettenhofen won grand prize at the final skat tournament at the Harmonie hall the night previous, an aggregate score of 3,057 points. Consolation prize was awarded to Henry Nabbeholdt, who had 2,056 points to his credit.

The second division of the senior class of Lawrence university delivered orations at the college chapel. The speakers were the Misses Underwood and Darling and Messrs. Gilbert, McCrary and Williams.

The ladies of Neenah were to issue a charity edition of a local paper of that city.

Capt. Spaulding was about again after a prolonged illness.

Bald Facts

I was greatly disappointed in Old Ben Franklin's Autobiography. I had always admired that blunt, thoroughgoing, straight-from-the-shoulder communication Young Ben sent to Strahan of the English Parliament, July 5, 1775—you remember the letter in the old school history, and especially the passage, "Look upon your hands! They are stained with the blood of your relations!" Then Old Ben tells in his Autobiography how he made it his rule to forbear all direct contradiction to the sentiments of others and all positive assertion of his own; how he never said certainly or undoubtedly a thing was so, but rather that it appeared so to him at the time. Now, if there's any kind of animal I detest it is the one who sideswipes you instead of hitting you while you are looking. One of those "white-there-is-every-reason-to-believe-what-you-say-nevertheless-or-however" weasels. Old Ben Franklin would hit a man softly. A greater American would not. Had Old Ben ever lined up alongside this greater American—well, it is lucky for Ben he didn't.

"When another asserted something that I thought an error," autobiographies this historical Jekyll-Hyde, "I denied myself the pleasure of contradicting him abruptly. . . . I began by observing that in certain cases or circumstances his opinion would be right. . . . The weasel! But in Young Ben's letter to Strahan—pop goes the weasel!

One wouldn't mind so much the dreadful humiliation of growing bald—after many years of pungent wit and humor at the expense of bald men—were it not for the fear that one's attack may "mellow" or grow mushy, soft, circumspiced, less impulsive, less inclined to fight for right. When Franklin gently called Strahan's attention to his bloody hands the American was 69 years old; when he counseled the weasel method he was 78. By that time perhaps he was growing too proud to fight.

Sir William Osler was right.

Take an ordinary cold. If you do, you're a plain everyday mollycoddle. You're a mollycoddle if you harbor even a suspicion that exposure to weather renders you more susceptible to any particular disease. But don't be alarmed. You have a great plenty of company. Good company, too. A large share of the medical profession stands loyally with you against every testimony of science, experience and common sense. Nearly all the old fellows.

Have plenty of fresh air, we advise people while we are still young and well covered with pretty hair.

But beware of drafts, we add, as we begin to slide down the toboggan.

It is curious how the encroachment of baldness slows up a man's attack.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Purify Your Grandmother

I've made up my mind it must be chronic catarrh, and I believe a good blood purifier would drive it out of my system. (B. E.)

ANSWER—Take my advice and unmake your mind again. There is no such disease as "chronic catarrh." There is no such thing as "a blood purifier" driving anything out of the system. All that is antique. If your trouble is in the nose or throat (your letter fails to give an inkling), consult a real physician. By that I mean a doctor who doesn't know what is the matter until he has examined the patient to find out. He will look into the nose and throat and find out what is wrong there. You will then be in a position to have advice and treatment directed toward what ails you, instead of darning yourself with junk purporting to be good for a non-existent disease.

It Didn't Jell

I made up a lotion for chapping and red rough dry skin which you published, but it comes out almost as thin as water. I wonder if there was any mistake in the formula as printed. It contained tragacanth and borie acid and glycerin and water. (G. R. L.)

ANSWER—This is the formula for the lotion:

Boric acid	half ounce
Glycerin	1 ounce
Tragacanth	50 grains
Water	1 pint

Boil, stirring constantly till all dissolved. The result should be a thin jelly. If the tragacanth is in powder form it may be adulterated with starch and fail to "jell"; tragacanth in shavings or large pieces is likely to be the real thing. The lotion is to be applied to the skin several times a day, after washing and before the skin is quite dry. It is sometimes used by men after shaving.

STATE GUARDS SOON TO BE DISCHARGED FROM THE SERVICE

DISCHARGE PAPERS HAVE BEEN PREPARED AND WILL BE SENT TO MADISON FOR SIGNATURE

Honorable discharges for 54 privates and non-commissioned officers of Company A, Ninth Wisconsin Infantry, were prepared last evening, marking the close of the official history of this military organization.

After they are signed by the adjutant general at Madison the discharges are to be distributed in accordance with Army General Order number four. The mustering out closes the military career of only 18 of the men, as the other 36 have re-enlisted in the new Appleton company of the Wisconsin National Guard.

Work was started a week ago by Capt. M. S. Peerenboom on checking up the equipment and supplies which were to be turned in to the state, and the financial affairs of the company have also been closed up. Only enough funds have been kept on hand to take care of the necessary obligations of the company and the company will therefore emerge with all of its debts paid. The checking up has been completed and the equipment turned over to the state officers, enabling the local military heads to make out the discharges for the men. The papers are expected back within ten days and will then be issued to the men.

The commissioned officers of the company will not be discharged for several days until all the work of Company A was organized September 25, 1917, with 68 members and has done creditable work in the city's military activities. In speaking of the company's career, Capt. Peerenboom said, "The men have been faithful in the performance of their duties and their service has been highly appreciated by the officers."

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP DEMANDS BEST IN BOY

The importance of older boys' work in the church was emphasized by Dr. H. E. Peabody in his talk at the H. Y. club meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night. Real membership in a church demands the best of the boy, Dr. Peabody said. The work of the church is to train conscience of the right kind and help in the building of character.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup, fill up the rest. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat irritation, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything less. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A total of $1,320,000.000 is to be raised in five years in the Inter-church World Movement. Some of the most prominent men in the United States are taking an active interest in the work.

The plan is to hold campaigns in the various denominations which will assign quotas to individual churches. After each church has completed its drive, officials of the movement will enter the territory, call on "friendly citizens" who are not members of any denomination and ask them for donations. In some instances men who have given in the denominational campaigns will also be asked to give again in the new campaign.

Dr. J. H. Tippet is chairman of the campaign in Outagamie county. Quotas of all the counties in the Oshkosh district in the citizen's phase of the drive are as follows: Calumet, $10,005; Manitowish, $28,392; Outagamie, $23,390; Sheboygan, $34,882; Waupaca, $16,900; Winnebago, $28,327.

"We have a paid Secretary and a good working organization. Personally I believe that every city should have an Association of Commerce for it furnishes an organization to take up the propositions which are always coming to a city in which possibly no one individual is interested directly, but the city as a whole may be vitally interested in same.

"Our Association of Commerce has been instrumental in locating several industries here in Fond du Lac. It has also assisted in organizing a Home Building Association, works in the Good Roads Campaign, it publishes an advertising medium known as the Trade Bulletin which promotes the interest of the merchants, has a rural development bureau, a Civic Department, a Legislative Department which looks after the legislation affecting the city and the ordinances passed by our commissioners. It has promoted ornamental street lighting on our Main Street, and is now promoting the further extension of this system down to our railroad stations, in fact it has many activities.

"The expenses are probably in the neighborhood of $8000.00 to $10000.00 a year. We maintain a suite of offices which includes a rest room and a small hall for the holding of meetings.

"My experience has been that you cannot get out of a proposition something that you do not put in, and in order to get the best results for a town the size of ours, it is necessary to have unselfish work done by the members of an Association of Commerce with a view of upbuilding of the city and community. The members of such Association should bury their petty differences and work for the good of the whole—(so many wish to divide the business before they get it). This in my opinion is vital to the upbuilding of an Association of Commerce.

"I think we pay our Secretary in the neighborhood of $2500.00 a year.

"If I can be of further service to you, please command me.

Permission being granted by Jack Curley who holds the rights on all his public appearances, the European heavyweight champion and challenger of Jack Dempsey may spar a few rounds after a banquet given in his honor by the International Sporting Club.

Eddie Eagen, captain of the Yale boxing team, middleweight champion of the inter-allied tournament and amateur champion of America, will box with him, the A. A. U. having sanctioned the bout. Major Drexel-Biddle, president of the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control, also may box one round with the Frenchman.

For the remainder of the week, Carpentier and his party will continue the pleasant occupation of seeing New York.

KAUKAUNA ELKS LAND THIRD PLACE IN MEET

Kaukauna achieved more fame as the home of crack bowlers this week when the team representing the Elks of that city landed in third place in the Elk tournament at Kenosha. The stars hit the wood for a count of 2,687. The Elk's Academy team of Kenosha, is leading with a score of 2,783. Kaukauna finished the first game with a count of 901 and the second with 919. Indications were that the team would romp into first place but bad breaks in the third game cut the score to 867 and third place was the best the Electric city men could get. The Kaukauna team was composed largely of the same men who won first place in the state bowling tournament at Manitowoc recently.

morning. Mr. Powell will turn the reservations over to the caterers Saturday noon so that the necessary purchases can be made, hence it is important that those who wish to attend must make their arrangements as soon as possible.

The letter of invitation mailed today briefly sums up aims of the proposed organization and expresses the need of a commercial organization in Appleton.

The Letter

"Dear Fellow Citizen:—For some time past, there has been a growing feeling that Appleton needed a Chamber of Commerce or some other similar organization in order that the best results might be obtained for this community.

"With that thought in mind, there have been numerous small meetings of individuals interested in this project for the past two weeks or more and as a result of these meetings, the undersigned committee were selected to invite the representative business and professional men of this community to a 'get-together' dinner to be served at the Elks Club room on the evening of Monday, March 29th, 1920, at 6:30 p. m.

"We have been successful in obtaining as the principal speaker for this event Mr. Philip A. Grau who at the present time is secretary of the Milwaukee Association of Commerce and who for many years previously had been in similar work in Chicago.

"We have made an investigation of various cities which have well developed organizations of this character and we are convinced that all of such cities have been greatly benefited because of the existence of such organizations. We cannot afford to be backward in a matter of so much importance to this community. We believe that you are interested in doing everything within your power to further the welfare of the community in which you reside and we wish to urge you, regardless of what your other engagements may be, to lay all other matters aside and arrange to attend this dinner in order that the sentiment of the entire community may be obtained on this subject.

"A definite plan of organization will be presented at this meeting and unless you are present in person, it will be impossible for us to know your views.

"We are enclosing herewith a postal card which we will ask you to return not later than Saturday morning, March 27th. We need your presence and we trust that you will so indicate it on this card.

INTEREST GROWS IN DELEGATE RACE

FOUR APPLETON MEN SEEK ELECTION—THREE ARE CANDIDATES ON THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

Interest in the campaign for election as delegates to the republican national convention is growing in Outagamie county daily. With three Appleton men as candidates on three tickets, the voters are being lined up in camps and real interest is developing.

The first shot of the campaign was fired Monday night when James L. Thompson, La Crosse, candidate for election on the LaFollette ticket, delivered an address at Eagle hall. C. B. Ballard, also a candidate on that ticket, was on the platform.

The only district Wood delegate in Wisconsin is Fred F. Wettengel of Appleton. He entered the race despite efforts of state republican leaders to send none but uneducated delegates to the national convention. John Strange of Menasha, is a candidate for election as a delegate at large on the Wood ticket.

Judson G. Rosebush is a candidate for election as an uneducated delegate from the Ninth district. He is opposed by Max Sells of Florence on the same ticket.

George Baldwin is a candidate for election as a delegate to the national democratic convention in San Francisco.

PEABODY SPEAKS IN FOND DU LAC CHURCH

LOCAL PASTOR DISCUSSES SPIRITUAL LIFE AND SERVICE BEFORE MEN'S ORGANIZATION

"Spiritual Life and Public Service", was the subject of an interesting address by Dr. H. E. Peabody, pastor of First Congregational church here, at a meeting of the Men's Club of Plymouth Congregational church in Fond du Lac this week.

Dr. Peabody showed how public and state institutions, doing philanthropic work, had developed their service from religious motives. He explained how the state, superseding the church, had derived much of its inspiration toward social service from the church. He quoted figures to show that a large percentage of the social workers in the greater cities, were church members and he sought to make clear the fact that efficient public service would always depend upon a basis of spiritual life.

Dr. Peabody also pointed out the need of maintaining the services of the church at their full power and urged upon the men the responsibility of the church as a man's job. Following his address, the speaker explained some methods of church work, especially of the appeal for some forward step on the part of every member of the congregation at a later time.

NEWS OF OUTAGAMIE COUNTY AND WISCONSIN

EXEMPT WOMEN IN CANNERIES FROM
8 HOUR DAY LAWPERISHABLE NATURE OF PRO-DUCT MAKES LONGER
HOURS NECESSARY,
COMMISSION FINDS

Madison, Wis.—The industrial commission has issued an order upon the hours of labor of women and the minimum rates for women and minors in factories canning beans, cherries, corn and tomatoes, to apply during the season of 1920. This order is based upon investigations which were made by the Woman's Department of the commission, and the hearing for the bean and corn canners which was held in January.

Because of the perishable nature of their product, factories canning beans, cherries, corn and tomatoes are exempted by the commission from its general order prohibiting night work in factories. In such canning factories, women may be employed at either day or night work, but they must be paid at the rate of time and one half for all work done after 6 p. m., which is in excess of 8 hours per day, and also for all Sunday work. In no day, also, may women be employed for more than 60 hours. The canning factories also are required to designate some one person who is to be charged with responsibility for the observance of the commission's orders, and must also keep such time and production records as the commission may require. Since canning is a seasonal industry, all canning factories come under the provision of the minimum wage order, which requires the payment of a minimum wage of 22 cents per hour to all women and minor employees. The payment of a rate of 2 cents per pound for snipping round beans and of 1½ cents per pound for snipping flat beans, however, will be accepted as a compliance with the minimum wage order. From the data which was submitted by the bean canners, the commission concludes that this piece rate will yield 22 cents per hour or more to women employees of average ability.

Wisconsin is rapidly becoming one of the most important of the bean canning states and has been for many years the first state in canning peas. Cherry canning is confined to Door county, and there is only a single tomato cannery in the state which is located at Prairie du Chein. A considerable number of the pea canning and bean canning factories also can corn, but the total amount of corn canned in the state is small as compared with the production of peas.

CRIME PREVENTION IS URGED BY BACKUS

Oshkosh, Wis.—If the nation becomes as active in applying remedies for crime before the youth is brought into court as it does in applying punishment, crime will be reduced to a minimum, Judge A. C. Backus of the Milwaukee Municipal court said in an address before the Open Forum here Sunday night.

"Crime and criminals have been a menace to the social order for centuries and ages. From the time Cain slew his brother, Abel, until the present, we have applied every conceivable method to eliminate crime but without success. Punishment in itself is not a deterrent," said Judge Backus. "History discloses that wherever punishment was severe and inhuman, crime had become rampant and increasing.

"The law has been applied only after the criminal act was consummated. The law never reached the offender before he started his career of crime, and there has been the weakness of our system."

TWO RIVERS DEMANDS
TRAINING SCHOOL SITE

Two Rivers—The city is eager to have the county training school located here when the new building is erected. The Chronicle says:

"Two Rivers has a right to demand that the new school be located here. Thus far every county institution is located at Manitowoc and elsewhere."

The training school has been located at Manitowoc ever since it was founded and has quarters on the second floor of the Carnegie library. At the last session of the county board, $10,000 was appropriated toward a new building.

BEST ROADS, SLOGAN OF WINNEBAGO COUNTY

Oshkosh—As a result of a successful county road school, held at the county courthouse by James Binning, county highway commissioner, it is expected the patrol system on the main highways of Winnebago county during 1920 will be unusually efficient. The school was largely attended by men appointed to patrol the roads. The slogan will be "The best roads of any county in the state."

The adverse exchange of England on America, it is estimated, is costing that country $1,125,000,000 a year.

URGE AUTO DRIVERS TO KEEP OFF OF DIRT ROADS

(Special to Post-Crescent)

Madison, Wis.—The Highway Commission is sending out an "S. O. S." request over the state, urging that so far as possible all automobile traffic be kept off dirt roads in general while they are drying after the frost goes out. More harm can be done to such roads, say the engineers of the commission, in a few hours than can be remedied in as many months; and besides travel on dirt roads in such condition is injurious to automobiles. The engineers recognize that it is not practicable to suspend traffic on dirt roads throughout the state for ten days or two weeks; all they ask is that so far as possible traffic be held up.

The meeting was adjourned as quickly as possible so that the Greenville Cow Testing Association could hold their meeting, which was also scheduled to be held the same night. This was their annual meeting.

FARMER TO BE PAID
POWDER PLANT DAMAGE

Racine—Attorneys for farmers and land owners in Caledonia, whose land was taken over by the government in October, 1918, for the proposed powder plants were advised by the war department that an award had been agreed upon as to the amount of damages to be paid.

The awards range from $400 to $12,000 and the total will amount to $250,000.

When the government took over the 2,200 acres it constructed concrete roads and built sewers and water systems, but the powder plant was abandoned when the armistice was signed. Orchards and groves on many farms were ruined.

Thieves bore holes in safe at theater.

Superior—Although vegemmen succeeded in burning two large holes in the safe of the Palace theater here, they did not succeed in opening it. The safe contained about $1,500.

The men entered the building by prying one of the exit doors. An acetylene torch was used to burn thru the steel door of the safe, but both holes made through the outer door failed to strike the vital mechanism of the lock.

DENIES MOVEMENT FOR NEW PARTY IN STATE

Superior—Stories about a new national movement in Wisconsin to include Socialists, Nonpartisans, railroad men, progressives and others are absolutely untrue, according to J. J. Handley, Milwaukee, secretary-treasurer of the Wisconsin Federation of Labor. He declared that no steps of the kind have been taken and none are contemplated.

He said that union representatives have held conferences with representatives of farmers' organizations to formulate legislative programs, but that the conferences were called merely to discuss the aims of both sides.

EAU CLAIRE SOCIALISTS
SEEK TO CONTROL CITY

Eau Claire, Wis.—Unusual interest is manifested in the approaching primary election, at which three candidates will be voted upon for one vacancy in the commission council. Registration was heavy. More than were expected have taken advantage of the present voters' law. If A. T. La Due, choice of the labor element, is elected the balance of power will be socialistic, as William Pomeroy, a councilman, is a strong Socialist. One candidate will be eliminated at the primaries, March 25.

There are at present 39 strikes before the Labor Department's division of conciliation for settlement, and 71 controversies which have not reached the strike stage.

LARGE LAND CLEARING
PLANS FOR THIS YEAR

Birchwood, Wis.—That northern Wisconsin will experience the banner year this season in land clearing is shown by the tremendous efforts to be made by bankers, business men and real estate agents of upper Wisconsin. Throughout this section a campaign will be carried on to place this portion of Wisconsin nearer a state of complete cultivation.

In Rusk county, it is expected that at least $1,000,000 will be used in clearing operation. J. E. Stewart, Wausau, is director of the Rusk county campaign.

According to the London Labor Gazette, prices of wearing apparel in Great Britain are about 300 per cent higher than in 1911.

SOLDIER BONUS IS OUT OF QUESTION

SO SAY LEADERS AT WASHINGTON WHO HAVE TRIED TO FIGURE OUT A PLAN

(Special to Post-Crescent)

Chicago.—There can be no further direct bonus, either of cash or bonds, for Uncle Sam's soldiers in the recent war. Any assistance to be extended to ex-soldiers and sailors must not constitute an outright debit—or add permanently to Uncle Sam's war deficit.

That is the decision reached this week at conferences, here between Republican members of Congress, in charge of legislation for the relief of soldiers, and Republican party leaders.

In order to set a Republican record that will still hold the soldier vote, an effort is to be made to speed up action on a measure which will provide government assistance in establishing soldiers in their own homes—particularly on farms—or in small business enterprises. This would take the form of long term loans, repayable in easy installments.

Stripped of all camouflage the decision reached was this:

"The Republican Congress would like to, but—

"The country simply cannot give the soldier a $50 bonus for each month of service.

"To make it of any value to the man who needs help, he would have to get it in cash. At least $10,000,000,000 would be required. Any campaign at this time to float a $10,000,000,000 government bond issue would end in failure.

"The proposition of a bonus in bonds is equally impossible. The necessity is not for assistance that will be helpful 20 or 30 or 40 years from now, when such bonds would become due, but now. The soldier would sell his bonds or pledge them as security for loans with the result of an immediate cash advance.

DELAWARE IS KEPT RICH BY FEES OF OTHER STATES

Treasury Overflows With Surplus Cash Derived From Liberal Laws Which Attract Charters of Large Corporations

By George B. Waters (Special to Post-Crescent)

Dover, Del.—Most states are poverty-stricken by the high cost of government. But not Delaware!

As a financier Delaware has Wall Street beaten forty ways.

This state taps the purses of people in the other states!

Wherefore $500,000 excess funds now lie in the state treasury—the most money Delaware ever had.

The easy income is derived from issuing charters to corporations. Delaware has "broad laws." You can take out a charter for a corporation dealing in anything from yellow gold to blue sky.

Hundreds of corporations all over the country are chartered under Delaware laws.

Pay Delaware a charter fee, send your attorney around once a year to hold an "annual meeting", pay your yearly charter tax regularly—that's all there is to do. Stock doesn't even have to be paid for, only subscribed.

The state has good as well as spurious corporations. The General Motors Co. last year paid Delaware a fee of more than $200,000 when it increased its capitalization, because it was chartered here.

There's so much money in the state treasury the Legislature at its coming session will transfer $500,000 to the school fund, enabling counties to keep the school tax rate under 50 cents per $100.

Fifty thousand dollars a mile is being spent for 250 miles of concrete highways. The state will soon have 600 fire-proof schools. Delaware does not tax property—the rest of the United States keeps her rich.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets (treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers).

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c. adv.

FIGHTS AGAINST TOBACCO BREWING THROUGHOUT U. S.

ACTIVE REFORM CAMPAIGNS ARE ON FOOT AGAINST CIGARETTE-GROWERS WILL FIGHT TO FINISH

(Special to Post-Crescent)
New York—Lady Nicotine is fighting hard for her life and unless the anti-tobacco forces present a more formidable attack, she will never "rest in peace" beside her dear departed husband, according to information obtained in a survey by the United Press.

So far as can be learned only three so-called national "reform" movements openly advocate extermination of tobacco along with alcohol. These are the Anti-Cigarette League, the W. C. T. U. and a few inconspicuous "Public Health" Associations.

The Anti-Saloon League claims no responsibility for the crusade against tobacco. In fact it charges such reports are made by enemies of the league to prejudice the public.

William H. Anderson, State superintendent of the league in New York, declared in answer to assertions an active campaign is being conducted by them, "That sort of talk is propaganda for the purpose of embarrassing our efforts to enforce prohibition."

Nevertheless, in many parts of the country, particularly in the west, there is an active reform movement against use of the "obnoxious weed." In most places it is directed by the local chapters of the national temperance organizations.

In Kansas and North Dakota there are anti-cigarette laws which prohibit the sale or advertisement of cigarettes. These laws, according to the tobacco companies affected by the restriction, are not the result of national propaganda but are the consequence of purely "fanatical" legislation.

Despite the fact that there is a law against the sale of cigarettes in Iowa, there is no enforcement, and the principal objection of users is that they have to pay from 2 to 7 cents more for the popular brands, because of dealers' "risk."

Oregon has initiated a constitutional amendment forever banning the "pill" which the voters are asked to decide upon at the November election. Montana has started an educational campaign against tobacco but as yet the legislature has not acted.

In the east, reformers have been less successful although it is not because of laxity on their part. South Carolina's legislature considered a bill to restrict the sale of the weed, but it was defeated. There, smoking in

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Appleton people.

Mrs. Fred Schultz, 1114 N. Division St., Appleton, says: "Off and on for several years I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a good remedy. Just last summer I had a spell of trouble with my kidneys. I got a bad backache and there were severe pains across my kidneys and all through the lower part of my body. My bladder pained a great deal and my kidneys acted too frequently. I had headaches, attacks of dizziness and a tired, drowsy feeling. I used one box of Doan's Kidney Pills at this time and it removed every sign of the trouble quickly. To this day, I haven't been bothered since."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schultz had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. adv.

restaurants was to have been prohibited.

The W. C. T. U. in western New York sponsored the movement with an anti-cigarette prize essay contest as the first step in its campaign. National officers of the W. C. T. U., however, denied they are attempting an anti-tobacco campaign.

In Indiana dealers have agreed, in many places, not to sell cigarettes upon solicitation of school officials.

Nearly every state has a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors.

Apparently the strongest concerted action has been brought by the Anti-Cigarette League of America under the leadership of Lucy Page Gaston.

This organization has headquarters in Chicago. Several years ago they urged passage of a law there making it a misdemeanor to smoke cigarettes but it was voted down by a large majority.

Action to forestall possible national legislation against the use of tobacco is being contemplated by producers in New England and elsewhere in the event of a concerted movement by the reform element of the country. In the Connecticut valley, the New England Tobacco Growers Association has already laid plans for meeting the issue when it is presented.

The Tobacco League of America, composed largely of Kentucky growers, with headquarters in Cincinnati, is likewise prepared to meet the "anti" forces with a heavy barrage, they claim, the moment such far-reaching legislation is offered.

To date the National Forest Reservation Commission has approved for purchase 1,751,115 acres for national forest purposes in the mountain areas of the eastern national forests.

PURCHASE OF LOT FOR HIGH SCHOOL BEFORE COUNCIL

COMMON COUNCIL WILL MEET WITH BOARD OF EDUCATION FRIDAY—WANTS TO LOCATE HERE

The resolution adopted by the board of education at its meeting last Saturday requesting the purchase of lots one, two and three, in block 50, for a school building site and an appropriation of $250,000 or more if necessary was referred to the committee of the whole at the meeting of the common council at the city hall Wednesday noon. It is the intention of the committee of the whole to hold a joint session with the board of education at the city hall next Friday evening at which time the high school situation will be taken up in detail.

O. E. Knoke, a lumber manufacturer of Hatley, Wis., addressed the council with reference to locating in Appleton. He said that his supply of logs was exhausted in that part of the state and that he would like to locate here providing he can secure a satisfactory site for a saw mill and yards. He will require about eighteen acres and the land he had in view was a portion of the old fair grounds. Mr. Knoke was accompanied by John L. Heitinger and Seymour Gmeiner, who vouched for his reliability and spoke of him in terms of highest praise. The matter of securing his plant for Appleton was referred to a committee of six aldermen, one from each ward, who will report at a later meeting.

Jelen Revett and Ethel Kemmer, city nurses were instructed to attend a meeting of school, municipal and industrial nurses at Madison from March 30 to April 1 inclusive.

NEW TOWN ROAD LAW IS TO BE EFFECTED APRIL 7

Statute Provides for Appointment of Town Road Superintendent and for Payment of Road Taxes in Cash

Madison.—The new town road law which provides for the appointment of a superintendent of highways to be in charge of town road work; for the payment of road taxes in cash, which eliminates the town road district and which makes the town the unit of highway improvements, becomes effective April 7.

It marks a change from a system which began in the territorial days of Wisconsin. Similar town road laws have been in vogue in Minnesota, Iowa and practically all the progressive states for many years and have proved a great improvement over the old system, says Good Roads for Wisconsin.

Among other things the new law provides for the following:

"That the town board shall appoint some competent person to superintend, under its direction, the construction and repair of highways and bridges within the town. He shall hold office for one year.

The old law provided for the appointment of "a competent person, or more than one." The old law further provided that if more than one person was appointed the town should be divided into as many districts as there were superintendents and that the superintendents should be appointed for three years.

Codfish Had Swallowed Watch

The fishing smack Hoodenegan, set, Captain Skidmore of Essex, Conn., had, among several interesting marine relics, a lady's gold watch taken from the stomach of a codfish near the reef off Nantucket, Mass. It is in a perfect state of preservation, with the hands marking 12:15 o'clock.—The New England Fisheries.

NATURALIST'S JOB FAR FROM EASY ONE

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION'S SEARCH FOR SPECIMENS IN AFRICA FURNISHES WORK AND THRILLS

(By Edward M. Thierry)
(Special to Post-Crescent)

Victoria Falls, Rhodesia—Traveling through darkest Africa with a bunch of scientists is a splendid education.

I've already found out what a herpetologist is—to say nothing of an ichthyologist, entomologist, ornithologist, mammalogist, conchologist and the ordinary garden variety of zoologist.

Harry Z. Raven, naturalist with the Smithsonian African Expedition, is all of these. Though coarse persons call him a bugologist. Raven lives at Bay Shore, L. I.

Didn't you always think that a scientific "ologist" was an aged be-whiskered, bespectacled person who absent-mindedly traveled around with a book in one hand and a long-handled net in the other searching only for rare butterflies, bats, bugs and beetles? Didn't you think he looked with scorn on ordinary potato bugs and houseflies and wasps and the like just because he knew them by their first names and their ancestors before them?

I did. And it always looked like a pretty soft job—with nothing to do but look out for new genera and new species.

But it's a real job of work, hard and monotonous work. And besides, "ologists" are not all old and bespectacled. Raven is young—30, and thin. He isn't spectacled, though he is bald-headed.

He's out for things rare and new. But he dare not pass up the old familiar specimens. He has to collect everything in sight just on the chance that one in a million might be brand new and because the Smithsonian Institution might not have a certain specimen though every scientist in the world knew its family history and other museums had carloads of them.

Just to show how rare new specimens are: Raven spent six years in combing Borneo and Celebes—and he discovered just two new genera of birds and exactly 12 new species. He got tons of mammals, but they haven't been classified yet.

Nets, guns and traps are Raven's weapons. He kills his bugs and insects in bottles of cyanide, lizards and the like in alcohol and birds and beasts he skins. He poisons the skins with arsenic and stuffs them with cotton and tow. And he saves skulls and skeletons for anatomical and osteological study.

Night work, too. Some beasts are nocturnal prowlers, so Raven goes out with a reflecting lantern and a gun. He shoots when he sees eyes shining in the light. The lantern shows nothing but the eyes, never the body. It's a bit risky, for if he shoots with small shot it would doubtless annoy the lion exceedingly—which might mean the sudden blotting out of an American scientist.

Raven's hotel room is full of bugs, lizards, tortoises, toads and snakes. Some are dead and some are alive. For Raven's job never ends. Once he has his captives he has to embalm them or skin them, as the case may be; measure them, photograph them, sketch some of them in water colors, record them and write the history of their lives and habits—besides tagging them and shipping them to Washington.

College track men expect big season

Blue and White Men are Working Indoors Preparatory to Contests With Other Schools in the Spring

Lawrence college track men, unwilling to wait for warmer weather have started working indoors. The first competitive work for the athletes will be the inter-class hexathlon April 16, which will give Coach Ikey Beyer a line on his material.

Track work at Lawrence is receiving a new impetus this year. With Beyer, one of the most famous weight men the Blue and White ever had, in charge of the outdoor sport interest in track is increasing. Special attention will be paid to the weight events, in several of which Beyer holds the mark for the state colleges.

Lean, who represented Blue and White in the heavy contest last year, is again in harness and under Beyer's tutelage should be good for several points in inter-college competition. Beyer also has a Chinese phenom, who hurls the javelin and who is said to be a wonder.

In the track events several of the old men are back, and with several promising frosh in the fold, a strong team should be developed.

JIMMY AUSTIN HOLDS OWN IN AMERICAN LEAGUE TEAM

Twelfth Season Finds Him Still in Role of Lead-off Man—Will Hold Down Third Sack for Jimmy Burke and Manager Split Squad

(By Fred Turbyville)
(Special to Post-Crescent)

Taylor, Tex.—Jimmy Austin will start his twelfth season in the American League as lead-off man for the St. Louis Browns. At Jimmy's age—38—you don't find lead-off men. The managers generally pick on a younger fellow.

But Jimmy is as young as the youngest. He has a fine pair of legs that still show no sign of going back on him. His arm is strong and his eye is keen. And he's mighty smart.

The secret of Jimmy Austin's wonderful condition, perhaps, lies in the fact that he varies little in weight the year around. He's still as trim as a well-trained college athlete. He weighs 158 when in playing form. He weighed 161 when he reported this spring. He, just doesn't take on weight. Most old players take on so much weight they have to give it up to the younger fellows.

They've come and gone in the American League, but not Jimmy Austin. He's there to bid them welcome and he's there when good-byes are said.

This is his seventeenth year in professional baseball. He doesn't do anything else except manage some property in Cleveland that was bought with his accrued earnings.

There is no more peppery ball player than Jimmy and none more popular.

He's going to attend to business around the third sack for Jimmy Burke. He is Jimmy's right-hand man, and when Jimmy finds it necessary to split the squad for exhibition games Austin is given charge of the Yankigans.

There are a lot of good recruit infielders in the Brown squad—classy boys, too. But it isn't likely that any one of them will be camping on Jimmy's corner this season.

CARDINALS LOSE TO PAPER MILL QUINT

TWIN CITY AGGREGATION IS DEFEATED BEFORE A SMALL CROWD IN NEENAH LAST NIGHT

Twin City Cardinals took a 21 to 18 licking from the Northern Paper Mills quintet, Green Bay, at Neenah armory Wednesday night. The Cards failed to display their usual spectacular form. It was one of the very few times the Cards have played to a small audience, the armory being only comfortably filled.

Neenah took the lead with a free throw by Young and a field goal by Lille. Green Bay came back strong and tossed in two field goals. The remainder of the half was nip and tuck, the lead changing from the one team to the other. Green Bay led at the first whistle, 11 to 10.

Young's free-throwing for the Cards was a feature of the contest. The stocky guard had eight chances and he scored a perfect goal in every try.

Green Bay started strong in the second period and gained a five point lead before Young scored a free-throw. The Cards came within a point of tying the score several times but were unable to go ahead. Rose now, Green Bay's one handed center, was the individual star, tossing in four field goals. Wilson played strong ball, while Lille and Young did the best work for the Cards.

A dance followed the game. A large number of Appleton people were in attendance.

Trade school may take over manual training

There is a possibility of the manual training work of the district schools being taken over by the vocational school next year. W. S. Ford, director of the vocational school, is working out a plan that is meeting with favor. It provides for the seventh and eighth grades doing their work at the new school building, while the lower classes will do their work in their respective school buildings under the direction of vocational school teachers. The proposed manner of handling this branch of school work will relieve the congested conditions prevailing in some of the districts.

STREET RAILWAYS UNITE FOR DEFEAT OF TRACTION PLAN

THOUSANDS ARE SPENT IN ADVERTISING AND PROPAGANDA TO DEFEAT DETROIT RAILWAY PURCHASE

(By Russ Simonton)
(Special to Post-Crescent)
Detroit—"Public utilities of America versus the people of Detroit." This is "Millionaire Mayor" James Couzens' statement of the fight of the Detroit United Railways to defeat his municipal ownership plan at the polls April 5. Detroit is the largest American city to consider owning its traction system and the mayor says the street railway companies of the country are massing capital to defeat the proposal here.

"They are spending $50,000 a week," says Couzens. "They know if we win private ownership is doomed in the United States."
Here are some ways Couzens says they are spending money:
Millions of pages of advertising and circulars.
A quarter million phonograph records mocking Couzens for free distribution.
Cook books for Polish woman carrying company advertising in the Polish tongue.
Hired speakers and singers and movie film.
Detroit amended its city charter to provide for municipal ownership in 1905. When Couzens took office he submitted a plan of purchase. It was defeated. He said he would present a plan every six months until he found what Detroit wanted. This is his third plan. The second "died."

He wants the city to build 162 miles of track in districts not now served and eventually drive out the D. U. R. This plan will cost $15,000,000. He proposes to try out the new Ford-st car on the city lines.

The company did not attack the plan until three weeks ago.

Now it is spending thousands upon thousands in newspaper advertisements and handbills, says Couzens.

Hundreds of song books called, "Toons of the Toonerville Trolley," have been distributed free. They contain parodies on popular songs.

One declares, to the tune of "Tipperary," that "It's the Wrong, Wrong Way to Build a Carline."

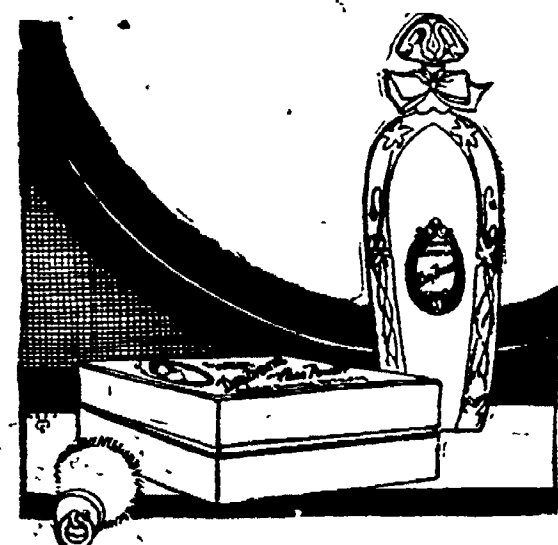

Two hundred and fifty thousand phonograph records, said to have been made by a man with a voice like Couzens, are declared on their way by special motor truck train from New York. They will make speeches, says Couzens, ridiculing him and his plan.

"I'm anxious to hear them," he added.

WOULD DIRECT SPANISH TRADE TO GREAT BRITAIN

(By Milton Bonner)
(Special to Post-Crescent)
London—America may get some Spanish trade. But not if Manuel M. Barroso, secretary of the Spanish Chamber of Commerce in London, can help it.

"I am working as hard as I can against the United States and in favor of Great Britain in this matter of international trade," he said.

Barroso has much power. He is editor of The Anglo-Spanish Trade, a magazine published here, correspondent for a big Madrid newspaper and in close touch with Spanish business men.

"No, we have no national hostility toward America," he said. "It is purely a matter of business. The Spanish peseta was at par in your country till your bankers forced it down."

"The peseta buys less in America than it used to, more in England. It pays Spanish merchants to deal here. Moreover, England wants and needs what we can sell. America does not."

WANT RECRUITS FOR HEALTH ASSOCIATION

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Madison, Wis.—In recognition of the passing of the half-century mark by the American Public Health association next year, when the fiftieth annual meeting will be held, Wisconsin will make an effort to enlist at least 50 new members, the state's quota in the national membership campaign, Dr. C. A. Harper, Madison, is chairman of the committee on membership for Wisconsin, and will receive applications.

Originally a scientific body, the association more recently has been broadened so that those may join who have a more general interest in public health, including such workers as health officers, laboratory men, school medical inspectors, industrial hygienists, public health nurses, physicians interested in preventive medicine, etc. Publications of the association go to all paid members.

An interesting circumstance of the semi-centennial is that Dr. Stephen Smith, New York, founder and first president of association, will at that time be approaching his 95th birthday, and it is his intention to read a paper at this meeting. He is still hale and hearty, possessing his faculties to a remarkable degree. His vigor at a ripe old age exemplifies the results of sane living.

"The American Public Health association stands as an honored institution which during the years has been exceedingly influential in bringing the new methods of public health into use," said Dr. Harper. "Certainly no health worker can afford not to be a member, or to miss its publications."

NEGROES MIGRATING NORTH DURING WAR REMAIN THERE

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Memphis—Are migrations of negroes from the south to seriously handicap southern industries?

During the war thousands of negro laborers left the south for the war factories of the north. They have not returned. Instead they are taking the places, it is said, of foreign-born labor in northern mills and factories and those who remained in the south are not sufficient to carry on the work here.

Memphis faces a labor shortage. Although there are a few idle negroes here who are refusing work at even higher wages than those last year, there is a serious shortage. Cotton mills and plantations using negro labor almost exclusively are complaining of the lack of hands and planning the importation of negroes from other parts of the south.

10 YEAR OLD FARM BOY CAPTURES LIVE EAGLE

Kenosha, Wis.—Harvey Luebke, the 10 year old son of August Luebke, a farmer living near Kenosha, on Monday captured alive a large wild eagle. The boy saw a "bird" caught in a wire fence. He hurried over to help it out of the fence and when he saw it was a real eagle, he called for help and held tight.

His father came and together they caged the bird. It is seven feet, four inches from tip to tip and stands two and a half feet high.

In some of the cities of Europe a dog is taxed according to its size—a little tax for a little dog, and a big tax for a big dog.

WORLD IS ABOUT TO ENTER NEW ERA OF POWER, SAYS LODGE

FAMOUS BRITISH SCIENTIST PREDICTS CHANGED WORLD—BELIEVES RADIUM GREAT-EST ENERGY SOURCE

By Russ Simonton
(Special to Post-Crescent)

Cleveland, O.—Sir Oliver Lodge, world-famous British scientist, now in the United States, declared today his conviction that the world was about to enter a new era of power and that within 100 years:

Common substances — salt, sugar, and clay — would be made to produce 1000 times and more the energy of dynamite.

Every steam and electrical machine would be junked and engines of vast power and tiny size replace them.

Great flying machines would swarm in the sky, traveling with the speed of sound and supplanting every present day form of travel.

Sir Oliver selected a cigarette. With the care of surgeon incising an eye-muscle, he inserted it in a much-chewed wooden holder, held a match below it until it glowed, and leaned back among the cushions of the hotel divan.

"I am going to tell you," he said, "of the coming power and for the first time talk about a theory I have. I am getting too old to carry on the work. Through you I am going to tell the younger men something I suspect is true and startling."

He sketched the theory of atomic energy that first was talked of when the Curies discovered the wonder-element—radium. He told me how radium, with its constant bombardment of light particles, denied science's statement that matter could not be changed or altered. Then he said that scientific men now believed that each tiniest speck of matter was made up of infinitely tiny particles or bits of pure energy. He called this energy "electronic" and said that these particles traveled at incalculable speeds and with tremendous power. They pierce steel and wood and glass with ease, he said.

"We must harness these electrons," said Sir Oliver. His cigarette was dead—burned down to the charred holder. "If we can take matter and extract the power of these electrons, we can control the greatest source of energy man has ever dreamed of."

Then he proceeded to deny what the average man would stake his life was true and what science has declared is a fact for more than 100 years.

"I don't think," he said, "man has ever seen light. I think that light waves, vibrating faster than 500 million times a second, are too fast to affect the muscles and nerves of the eye. I think that all matter is undergoing decay all the time and that the energy waves, the electrons given off strike the pigments of the eye and make us 'see.'"

"That's just my own idea. I think students of physiology will bear me out after experiment. I think they will find that we are in fact seeing the energy that we seek to harness to turn our factory wheels."

SPIRITS' COPPER MINE RESULTS IN LAWSUIT

Eau Claire, Wis.—How two old men had traveled to the woods near Hurley to prospect for a copper mine of which the spirits had told one of them, Mike Shupsky, was one of the fascinating sidelights in a human interest story revealed in a lawsuit which Shupsky brought in circuit court against his mining partner and former lodger, F. A. Beintker. The old men told the court how they bored with a 10-foot auger during the hottest days in July, 1917, and of subsequent days of less harmony wherein the cooking of Shupsky's daughter's had done and he left holding that the note of $312 was outlawed by all he had endured at the hands of Shupsky. But, the court held otherwise and the note was ordered paid.

Conspicuous nose pores

How to reduce them

Complexions otherwise flawless are often ruined by conspicuous nose pores.

The pores of the face are not as fine as on other parts of the body. On the nose especially, there are more fat glands than elsewhere and there is more activity of the pores. These pores, if not properly stimulated and kept free from dirt, clog up and become enlarged.

To reduce enlarged nose pores: Wring a soft cloth from very hot water, lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

Notice the improvement the very first treatment makes—a promise of what the steady use of Woodbury's Facial Soap will do. But do not expect to change completely in a week a condition resulting from long continued exposure and neglect. Use this treatment persistently. It will gradually reduce the enlarged pores and make them inconspicuous.

Get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap and begin tonight the treatment your skin needs. You will find Woodbury's on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25 cent cake will last a month or six weeks.
